Kvitåvatn Fjellstue

Kvitåvatn Fjellstue

We have various types of family rooms/cabins equipped with bed loft, and room for five people. For example, choose from a spacious room with a view as well as shower and WC, or a charming, historic old log cabin, full of character. Dogs are welcome in designated rooms/cabins. For more information, visit: www.kvitaavtn.no

Shared facilities

Lounges with open fires and panoramic views of Gaustatoppen, playroom, TV room, sauna, reception and kiosk, conference room, free Wi-Fi.

Single meals or full board

In high season it is possible to book with full board. You can also order single meals at the lodge. Meals should be ordered in advance.

Shared kitchen facilities

You have free access to two well-appointed shared kitchens, one with capacity for 24 people and the other for 50. Our guests rave about our kitchens, telling us they are among the best of their kind. The BBQ can be used free of charge. The nearest supermarket is in Rjukan, 16 km away.

Rjukan: Museums and other things to see and do

The town of Rjukan is down in the valley, 16 km from the mountain lodge. It has a village museum, swimming centre and tourist information office. The museum at the old Vemork power plant a few kilometres west of the town is definitely worth a visit, where you can learn about the Germans' failed attempts to export heavy water for use in atomic bombs during the Second World War. You can also take the aerial cableway from Krosso up in the high mountains to Gvepseborg, where drinks are served. From here, there are signposted trails, such as to the new Hellberg cabin on the Hadangervidda mountain plateau. The walk is designated as "easy" and gives a good impression of the largest mountain plateau in Europe.

Gaustatoppen

1,883 metres above sea level Climb the highest mountain in southern Norway. The ascent starts just 8 km from the mountain lodge. Plan for 4-5 hours; refreshments at the peak. You can also walk directly from the Fjellstue and back as a daytrip. Or take the cable car inside the mountain. For details, prices and time schedule visit: www.gaustabanen.no

Superb rambling

Around Skipsfjell: 1.5-2 hours

This makes a great excursion, ideal for a short afternoon walk.

Ørnenipa: 3-4 hours

At 1333 metres above sea level, Ørnenipa is not highly prized by "peak baggers", but the views it offers are quite stunning.

Toreskyrkja: 4-5 hours

Toreskyrkja is in Heddersfjell, the mountain you can see between Gaustatoppen and the mountain lodge.

Outdoor activities

The Kvitåvatn area offers plenty of scope for all kinds of activities and sports. Hire a canoe or kayak at the mountain lodge and explore Kvitåvatn lake, or try out our disc-golf course. The activities at Kvitåvatn Fjellstue is free of charge for our guests.
